PUBLISHER'S NOTE

We cannot have a sense of community without having a sense of shared values. One of those values we share in East Cobb is a belief in quality education. After all, isn't that why most people move to this side of Cobb County?

The reputation of East Cobb's public schools' top test scores and quality learning environments draws people to East Cobb. Even if you don't have a child in school we all have a stake in our community's educational system—from our property values to future leaders to future employees. On pages 6 -18, we pulled together those education stats, school by (East Cobb) school- which provides evidence for East Cobb's great reputation for its schools. While the test scores offer a quick take that helps parents and teachers measure a school's success, it is important to note that beyond the rankings, each school needs to be assessed for other qualities, such as: strong school leadership, parental and community support, creating an environment where students can learn and grow, access to up-to-date textbooks and technology.

I have three children attending schools in East Cobb: Lee will be a senior at Walton High School; Nikos will be a sophomore; and, Eleni will be an eighth-grader at Dickerson Middle School—so I have a personal interest in the information presented in our Back to School Guide! I hope the test scores and stats help you gain some insight on your neighborhood school(s) and our East Cobb community. In the meantime, I, like so many other East Cobb parents, will be in the trenches collecting on-the-ground intelligence by attending PTA meetings, volunteering at my child's school, and/or bumping into other moms to help me make sure my son or daughter is in a place where they experience the excitement — and the relevance — of learning, and where the next generation of intelligent, hard-working, disciplined leaders is being nourished.

Speaking of nourished: everyone needs to eat, so why not enjoy a local restaurant as an opportunity to sit down, slow down and enjoy life? When deciding to dine out, I hope you'll refer to our 17th Annual Dining Guide (pages 36-51) for inspiration. So, eat, drink, and be merry—right here in East Cobb!

On the Cover

We thought a great way to kick off the school year would be to feature Mr. Chris Ragsdale, recently named interim Superintendent of Cobb County Schools, on our cover this month. Mr. Ragsdale previously served the District as Deputy Superintendent for Operations from 2011-2014 and Chief Technology Officer from 2006-2014, managing plant operations, safety, transportation, maintenance, and overseeing technology integration. He has also been responsible for planning and execution of capital projects approved by Cobb voters and funded by the Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax (SPLOST).

As interim superintendent of the second-largest school system in Georgia, Mr. Ragsdale states, "I will have a laser focus on work going on in the classroom. The success of the district rests on the shoulders of our teachers. The great work our teachers are doing has allowed our district to be successful and will continue to make it successful."

Mr. Ragsdale's term will run from May 2014 to May 2015.

School Board Approves Fiscal Year 2015 Budget

The Cobb County Board of Education approved a $900 million balanced budget for Fiscal Year 2015 during its May 29 meeting, funding a full 180-day school year and adding more than 300 teachers to reduce class sizes district-wide. The new budget includes no furlough days, a 1 percent partial salary restoration and provides for full step pay increases for eligible employees. A boost in both state funding and additional local property tax revenue helped bolster a more positive financial outlook for the 2014-2015 school year. Fiscal Year 2015 begins July 1, 2014 and runs through June 30, 2015.

The FY2015 General Fund budget anticipates $862,429,012 in revenue and $900,243,511 in expenditures, based on an anticipated student enrollment of 111,459 (including two charter schools, the Devereux Ackerman Academy and Pre-Kindergarten). Following several years of declining state and local revenue that resulted in cuts in personnel, salary reductions and furlough days, the FY2015 budget represents a much brighter fiscal outlook as revenues have returned to the positive. The General Fund budget includes significant boosts to the district's two main sources of revenue – an additional $20.1 million from the state and $21.3 million in local property taxes – both a product of an improving economy. The budget also includes more than $13 million in carryover "lapse" funds that were budgeted for the current fiscal year but were not spent due to frugal management. Finally, to balance the budget the school board approved using at least $24.6 million in reserve funds, which still leaves the district with more than $95 million in fund balance, safely above the recommended one-month's operating reserve.

The additional teachers that will be hired will help reduce class sizes by approximately one student on average across the district. With no furlough days, the 2014-2015 school year will be the first complete 180-day school year since 2009-2010. The newly approved budget includes funds to hire additional administrators at 15 schools, as well as additional police officers to enhance school safety.

Detailed information and documentation about the approved Fiscal Year 2015 budget and development process are available under the Finance and Budget section of the Cobb County School District website: www.cobbk12.org.

Cobb Chamber Offers Chance to be a Teacher for a Day

The Cobb Chamber is looking for business and community leaders to participate in the Teacher for a Day program on Wednesday, October 2, for Cobb County Schools and Tuesday, September 23, for Marietta City Schools.

This innovative program asks the local business community to take a day away from the office and spend it in a classroom. Teacher for a Day gives business executives a true picture of public education in action.

In one day you'll see first-hand both the strengths and challenges that schools and teachers face.

The Cobb Chamber will place volunteers in Cobb and Marietta City schools to experience a day in the shoes of a teacher. Volunteers will work side-by-side with a Cobb County or Marietta City Teacher of the Year for a full school day. Applications are due Friday, August 8.

For more information or to download an application, visit www.cobbchamber.org or contact Strom Mull at 770-859-2374 or smull@cobbchamber.org.

Alexsander Academy is Great Educational Option for Kids

Because not every child thrives in a large classroom learning environment, we are fortunate to have a school like Alexsander Academy close by. Located in Alpharetta, Alexsander Academy was created to be a place where children with differences can also be challenged academically. When Co-founder Stefanie Smith was looking for resources for her son, she realized that many schools focused on rehab and behavior management, but didn't offer a strong academic curriculum for children with special needs.

At the fully-accredited Alexsander Academy, there is no "one size fits all" program, and educators create a curriculum that is tailored to each student's learning needs.

"Our small environment allows us to help students be successful in a classroom, build friendships and gain self-confidence," says Stefanie. "We help our students be better prepared to go back to a traditional learning setting."

Stefanie is proud to offer knowledgeable and experienced teachers at the academy. Most teachers have advanced degrees and more than 15 years of experience teaching students with issues, like learning disabilities, ADHD, AS, autism spectrum disorders, dyslexia, cognitive challenges and Down syndrome.

If your child needs a small and more individualized school program or is struggling academically or socially, take the time to learn more about Alexsander Academy. They are accepting applications for the 2014-15 school year and scholarships are available. Also, the school offers a summer academic session and year-round tutoring.

The academy is located at 1090 Powers Place, Alpharetta, Ga., 30009. For more information, visit www.alexanderacademy.org or call 404-839-5910.

PTAs Welcome a New School Year

By Anne Davidson, President, East Cobb County Council of PTAs

Welcome to the 2014-15 school year. This year the theme for the East Cobb County Council of PTAs (ECCC PTA) is "Together We Touch the Future." As parents, as PTA volunteers, as teachers, as administrators and as a community, together we strive to help our children to grow and to learn. There is nothing more important than our children. We want their education to prepare them to thrive – as individuals, at work, within their family and as part of their community. A high quality education is indispensable in an increasingly competitive world – and our efforts to support education are essential for our children's success and critical to the vitality of our families, businesses and communities. With our efforts we will make a difference – and we will touch the future.

The ECCC PTA is made up 35 local PTAs, whose volunteers offer their time, energy and skill to support our teachers and principals – who do their best, every day, to give our children an excellent education. The ECCC PTA and our local PTAs provide programs that enrich the student learning experience. East Cobb PTAs contribute funding to enhance science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) curriculum, to expand the offerings in media centers and to provide access to reading and math software that supplement academic progress. PTA family engagement efforts reach out to involve parents in their children's education. Our legislative teams educate our community about issues that impact education quality – and this fall, they will be actively providing nonpartisan voting information and reminders about the November election. Our membership teams have developed an impressive portfolio of business partners who offer useful discounts and benefits to PTA members. The PTA Reflections program presents students a chance to demonstrate talent in the arts – through writing, drawing, painting, photography, dance, music and other genres. Our PTAs celebrate and embrace the diversity in our communities, encourage community service, facilitate programs to enhance environmental education and share best practices on health and wellness. East Cobb PTA organized activities – such as fall fairs, fun runs, class picnics, multicultural events, field days and school dances – cultivate a spirit of family and community.

We invite you to join us – our local PTAs, the ECCC PTA, the 9th District PTA, the Georgia and National PTAs – to support our schools, to strengthen our children's educational success and to improve our children's opportunities for a better future. Our PTA members are parents, grandparents, students, teachers, school administrators and community and business partners. We have a shared goal that our children receive a high quality education so that they may reach their fullest potential. Let's work together to make that reality. Together we touch the future – for every child, for every family, for every community. "Every Child. One Voice." ☺

Anne Davidson is the 2014-15 president of the East Cobb County Council of PTAs (ECCC PTA). She lives in Sibley Forest with her husband, Matt Njaa, and her two boys, Matthew (10) and Nate (9), who attend Sope Creek Elementary School. Anne is a volunteer for the ECCC PTA, the Sope Creek Elementary School PTA and in her community. Photo: Julia Curran Photography

SAT Stats: East Cobb High Schools

The Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT) and the American College Testing (ACT) are offered by The College Board several times during the year. These tests are not required by the state or school system, and are not administered by Cobb schools; however, most colleges and universities use SAT and/or ACT scores in determining student admission. The SAT is used to predict a student's potential for success in the first year of college and is required for admission to most colleges and universities. Most college-bound students take one or both of these tests during either their junior or senior year. The following chart displays SAT scores from the Class of 2013 (the last available scores released from Cobb County School District) attending East Cobb high schools. Mt. Bethel Christian Academy Opens Upper School

With the addition of a new Upper School campus, Mt. Bethel Christian Academy becomes the first and only faith-based, K-12 independent school in East Cobb. On April 30, 2014, Mt. Bethel finalized the acquisition of 32 acres near the corner of Post Oak Tritt Road and Holly Springs Road. The site had been owned by the Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta, which had operated it as a preschool and athletic recreation facility for several decades.

Mt. Bethel Christian Academy was founded in 1998 by a church whose East Cobb roots go back well over a hundred years. Mt. Bethel United Methodist Church has been a mainstay of the community since 1840. In its first sixteen years, Mt. Bethel Christian Academy has grown from a starting class of twenty-five kindergartners to 540 students in grades K-8th. And now, with the addition of an Upper School campus serving grades 9-12, the school is poised to grow further still. Enrollment growth at the Upper School is planned in two phases. Phase One allows for a total of 160-180 students. Phase Two, which will require the addition of new classroom space, will push enrollment to a maximum of 450 students - approximately 110 per grade level. Applications for the Class of 2018, Mt. Bethel's founding class of freshmen, are being accepted now for enrollment this August. To accommodate families moving into the area or those who may be considering a school change, enrollment will continue into the fall as space permits.

College-preparatory in its approach, Mt. Bethel's Upper School curriculum is designed to challenge students with honors and AP courses offered in all core subjects. Students will be guided through the rigorous curriculum by expert teachers. The founding faculty of the Upper School are deeply experienced, certified educators who welcome the opportunity to form deep, impactful relationships with students.

For students interested in athletics, the new Upper School campus abounds with opportunity. The expansive facilities include tennis courts, swimming pool, cross country course, indoor and outdoor gymnasiums, fully equipped fitness center, baseball field, and activity field. In addition, the campus features a two-acre pond which will be used for recreation as well as experiential learning as it is incorporated into the science curriculum.

Over the course of a high school career, the typical student will spend nearly 5,000 hours in direct contact with his teachers and coaches. Outside of their parents, these relationships may well be the most important in a student's life. Mt. Bethel faculty take seriously their responsibility to be Godly role models for students who are being prepared academically, physically and spiritually to leave home, move on to success in college, career and community.

Fifth Grade Writing Scores Hold Steady

The Fifth Grade Writing Assessment was administered to 8,061 students in March 2014, requiring fifth graders to write a composition on an assigned topic. Trained evaluators score each student paper based on the four domains of effective writing: Ideas, Organization, Style, and Conventions. The test results are designed to help students, teachers and parents understand specific areas where students may need to focus their efforts to improve writing skills during middle school. Student composition skills are evaluated again during eighth grade and assessed prior to graduation with the Georgia High School Writing Test.

The scale score range for the Grade 5 Writing Assessment is 100 to 350, and scores are reported in the following performance levels: Does Not Meet (100-199), Meets (200-249), and Exceeds (250-350). Summary data for the Fifth Grade Writing Assessment by may be found on the Cobb School District's website, www.cobbk12.org. The following chart displays the scores of East Cobb Schools.

Barbara Purdy Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Provides Personal Touch to Real Estate Search

▲ Barbara Purdy

Buying and selling a home is one of life's biggest decisions. In today's competitive market, it takes more than desire to successfully navigate a real estate transaction. It takes an intimate knowledge of the financial and personal aspects of the buying and selling process.

East Cobb Realtor Barbara Purdy has been on both sides of the closing table. When relocating to East Cobb from England two and a half years ago, Purdy used her knowledge of real estate to secure the ideal home for herself, her husband and their three teenage sons.

An associate with Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Georgia Properties, Barbara Purdy understands what it's like to search for a home in and around East Cobb. The need for good schools, good neighborhoods and an ideal commute time are top priorities for local buyers.

"The right location is crucial," believes Purdy.

Purdy credits East Cobb's wealth of friendly neighborhoods, excellent schools, local amenities and burgeoning restaurant scene with attracting residents, including her family.

As a Realtor with BHHS Georgia Properties, Purdy has access to the latest technology to aide in home buying and selling, including a mobile app to search for homes on the market. Purdy and her team market homes for top dollar and assist clients in finding the right home for their family.

"A qualified real estate agent is essential in buying and selling a home, for the information they can provide the client," said Purdy.

To contact Barbara Purdy about buying or selling a home, email Barbara.purdy@bhhsgea.com or call 404-662-6137.

Nominations for 2014 East Cobb Citizen of the Year Award Sought

Do you know an individual who is continually working behind the scenes to enhance East Cobb County and help ensure that it is a special place to live? If you do, the Cobb Chamber of Commerce is seeking the names of community members who, over the years, have given their time to serve the community and have helped to make East Cobb the distinctive place that it is.

The East Cobb Citizen of the Year award, created by Cobb County service clubs and co-sponsored by the Cobb Chamber Area Council and the East Cobb Business Association, has been presented to extraordinary individuals for the work they have done in East Cobb County. Past recipients include Sunny Walker, Don Johnson, Susan Hampton, Johnny Johnson, and Karen Hallacy to name a few. And through a continued partnership with Cobb County civic and business organizations and the Cobb Chamber Area Councils, the East Cobb Citizen of the Year Award continues to recognize outstanding, service-minded individuals that have exceptionally impacted East Cobb County.

The individual should demonstrate definable, exceptional deeds that showcase a dedication to making East Cobb County a better place to live, work and play. The individual may have a history of impacting the community, in addition to notable impact throughout the course of this year. The individual should be extremely active and hands-on in a Cobb County community and should be easily considered a role model.

The selection for the East Cobb Citizen of the Year recipient does not have to be a member of a specific organization such as the Cobb Chamber Area Councils, the Cobb Chamber, or a Cobb County business or civic association.

To nominate an individual for East Cobb Citizen of the Year, one must complete a nomination form. For more information or to request a nomination form contact Tya Dawson, Director of Small Business and Entrepreneurial Programs, Cobb Chamber of Commerce at 770-859-2341 or email tdawson@cobbchamber.org. All forms must be received by noon, Friday, September 19. ⑦

Local Business Leaders Raising Funds for East Cobb Public Safety Celebrations

For the second year in a row, local business leaders are leading efforts to raise funds to underwrite two special events for local Public Safety professionals. The first celebration is to be held this October to thank Precinct 4 police officers for all they do to keep our community safe. This event will coincide with Cobb County Chamber of Commerce's Public Safety Appreciation Week, and with the support of local businesses, organizations and individuals has now become an annual event. The second event will take place in February 2015 when this volunteer group will host the Cobb County Fire Department's annual awards banquet.

"Both events will take place in East Cobb, and we are confident that our community will rise to the challenge and provide the financial support needed to make these appreciation celebrations very meaningful for these special heroes," says Susan Hampton, Regional Manager for Fidelity Bank, and chair for the Public Safety Celebrations. "Fundraising was very successful last year, with seed funding already in place for this year's events, however, there is still a need to raise additional funds to insure both events' continued success." says Susan. Local businesses, as well as families, school groups and civic clubs are encouraged to make donations to this worthy cause. Sponsorship opportunities begin at just $25 to "Thank a Hero"! See the facing page for details on the donation levels.

For more information on these public safety celebrations, call Susan Hampton at 404-218-6216. ☎

Spotlight on Cobb County Animal Control

By Tali Schroeder

Cobb County Animal Control, located on Al Bishop Drive in Marietta, prides itself on handling animals with care and professionalism. The office handles aggressive animals of all species, answers noise ordinance calls, and processes stray animals, among other services. Cobb County Animal Control (CCAC) also operates a shelter that cares for over 200 animals. Last year, over 10,000 animals were turned in to the shelter.

The facility can only house up to 285 animals at a time, so CCAC works with many animal rescue groups. These groups include Good Mews Rescue, Cherokee Humane Society, and other breed-specific rescue groups. However, while rescue groups can help the shelter by taking animals in to their own facilities, the number of animals in CCAC's shelter is consistently growing. According to Department of Public Safety Lieutenant Cheryl Shepard, "animals are coming into the shelter faster than we can find homes for them."

Unfortunately, one of the main reasons why people give their pets to a shelter is because they are recently adopted and are showing signs of aggressiveness. Shepard says that "in most cases the animal just needs some time to become familiar with their environment." Due to the relatively small capacity of the facility, Shepard "would like to encourage pet owners to only bring their animals to the shelter as a last resort."

CCAC would like citizens to know that "[they] are working very hard to find homes for unwanted animals." In addition to adoption events, CCAC has an online service, located at www.cobbcounty.org on Animal Control's page, that can be used to look up animals that have been taken into the shelter. This service can be used to reclaim a lost animal or find a pet to adopt. Users can view animals based on characteristics such as size, breed, gender and whether or not the animal is house-broken or good with children. Cats and dogs that are eligible can be adopted for a fee of $110 each.

Cobb County Animal Control is open for adoptions and reclaims Tuesday-Saturday from 9:30 AM to 5:30 PM and on Sunday from 1 PM to 6 PM. For more information on services provided by CCAC, call (770) 499-4136.

Feel Right at Home at Chicken Salad Chick

▲ Owner, Kay Lynne Mitchell

With its meager beginnings in the family kitchen, East Cobb's new Chicken Salad Chick maintains that homespun atmosphere of entering someone's dining room. Local Marietta landmarks grace the walls, and friendly faces greet you with a "come sit a while" manner. Franchise owner and operator of the East Cobb location, Kay Lynne Mitchell is the aunt of the original Chicken Salad Chick, Stacy Brown.

In 2007 Stacy set out on a quest in Auburn, Alabama, to achieve two goals: to discover the ultimate chicken salad recipe and to support her family in doing so. Her neighbors served as taste testers until she developed the perfect recipe. Stacy quickly became known as the Chicken Salad Chick as she delivered her food in a basket door-to-door in the Auburn community. The company logo today is a whimsy representation from this stage of the business. To diversify, she added other recipes such as Fruity Fran and Jazzy Julie (named after family and friends) to her menu.

A call from the local health department instructing Stacy that she could not operate a business out of her kitchen put a brief stop to the enterprise. Stacy then formed a partnership with her business-savvy, current husband, Kevin Brown. They opened the doors together of the first Chicken Salad Chick. Armed with 40 lbs. of chicken salad to sell, they were sold out by 1:00 that day. The couple ultimately opened two restaurants in the Auburn area, which they ran for the next few years.

With a push from customers, the two entrepreneurs decided to franchise the concept and were immediately flooded by franchise requests. To date, they have sold 85 franchises in the Southeast. Twenty of those locations are currently open with the rest to follow in a scheduled development plan.

One of the restaurants recently opened in Providence Square shopping center off Roswell Rd. in March 2014. Stacy's mother and two aunts own and operate the East Cobb location, with Kay Lynne on the premises most days. These women are also namesakes of three flavors on the menu -- Nutty Nana (Cheryl Melton), Kickin' Kay Lynne (Kay Lynne Mitchell) and Classic Carol (Carol Schrader). Although Kay Lynne had lived and raised her children in East Cobb, she researched the entire Atlanta perimeter looking for the perfect spot for their restaurant.

"My search proved that the best location in all of Atlanta was right here in East Cobb," says Kay Lynne. "From the first day, we have been packed. The community has been so welcoming to us, and customers feel like family already."

Chicken Salad Chick is now serving its 15 different chicken salads, along with homemade side items, gourmet soups and freshly baked cookies, Monday-Saturday from 10:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. The business philosophy is God first, family second and business third, which allows employees to spend evenings, Sundays and all holidays with their families.

For more information, visit www.chickensaladchick.com, or better yet, visit the restaurant at 4101 Roswell Rd., Suite 811, to find out which chicken salad recipe is your favorite.

Nibble & Noshfest, the Taste of Jewish Food and Fun!

Temple Kol Emeth wants to celebrate the end of summer with all of their East Cobb friends, so we're throwing a party Labor Day weekend: the Fifth Annual Nibble & Noshfest. The non-stop fun runs August 31 and September 1 in the parking lot of Temple Kol Emeth.

- It's a children's fair. We'll have inflatables, games, and face painting to keep the kids happy for hours!
- It's a music festival. We'll have entertainers galore from those who are young and those who are young at heart!
- It's a crafts show. If you are looking for that perfect gift or something for yourself, our vendors will be selling something you can treasure. Lots of your local favorites will be on hand selling jewelry, art, photography, and much more.
- It's a religious education. Nibble & Noshfest is your chance to learn everything you always wanted to know about Judaism in East Cobb, but were afraid to ask. Take tours of our sanctuary and learn the mystical meaning of the architecture. Rabbi Steven Lebow and Rabbi Erin Box will be on hand much of the time to offer insights into our beliefs, our congregation, and our place in the community. Outside, you'll find booths with information about Temple Kol Emeth and other wonderful community organizations.

- It's a night of Desserts, Drinks, and Drama. Nibble & Noshfest is too exciting to be limited to the daylight, so we'll kickoff the weekend on Saturday, August 30 with an evening of mystery theatre featuring the Laughing Matters Improv Troupe. It's the classic case of "Who Dun It?" Noshfest style! The event begins at 8:00pm and tickets are available on www.noshfest.com.

Of course, best of all, Nibble & Noshfest is about the nibbling and the noshing—that is, the food. Imagine Taste of East Cobb with a bit of a Jewish/ethnic flair, and you'll get the picture. More than a dozen great eateries will offer food in sample-size portions for $1 to $4 each.

Nibble & Noshfest runs from 11am to 7pm on Sunday, August 31. The fun continues from 11am to 4pm on Monday, September 1. Admission is two canned goods that will be donated to Must Ministries Feed the Hungry Program. Have a nosh and share a nosh, what a great combination!

Temple Kol Emeth is located at 1415 Old Canton Road in Marietta/East Cobb 30062 at the intersection of Old Canton and Sewell Mill Road. For more information about Nibble & Noshfest, please visit the festival website at www.noshfest.com. 📍

Admission is 2 cans
of food for donation to:

Nader Parman II Interfaith Community Run/Walk and Tot Trot

Each year, about 16,000 children in the United States die of sudden cardiac arrest. Most of these deaths are preventable with simple, straightforward measures. In May 2002, seven-year-old Nader

Parman II was playing baseball in his own front yard in Marietta/East Cobb when a baseball struck him in the chest at just the wrong moment, killing him. The ball hit Nader in the area right above his heart, at exactly the right millisecond to cause a fatal abnormal heart rhythm and trigger cardiac arrest. The injury is rare, but not unheard of, and a portable defibrillator used within three minutes offers the best probability of survival. The tragedy of Nader's death has been transformed into a miracle spreading the "Heartsafe" word. You, too, can help save lives by joining this fun family event on Labor Day!

On Labor Day, September 1, six community congregations from three faith backgrounds unite to help increase awareness of sudden cardiac arrest in children. This year, the East Cobb Islamic Center, East Cobb United Methodist Church, Eastminster Presbyterian Church, Islamic Center of Marietta, Sewell Mill Baptist Church, and Temple Kol Emeth are uniting to serve their community by raising awareness, and by making this year's run bigger and better than ever. Starting at 7:30am, the 6K/1K race course runs through the heart of East Cobb, beginning and ending at Temple Kol Emeth. Stay and enjoy a post-run event at NoshFest!

Thanks to previous support, more schools and sports leagues have become "heart safe" daily. More people than ever know about Sudden Cardiac Arrest in children, are trained in CPR, and ensure there are Automatic External Defibrillators wherever children play, but there is much more work to do. Register early to ensure you receive a t-shirt! Cost to register is $25 until August 25, and then it increases to $30. You can even register to be a phantom runner and still receive a t-shirt if you register early! Funds go to the Nader Parman II Memorial Foundation, an IRS-approved 501(c)(3) Charitable Organization. For more information, or to register, you can contact:

The Straight Scoop from Capps and Iaculli Orthodontics

▲ Dr. John Iaculli and Dr. Jerry Capps

Where did you get that beautiful smile? For more than three decades, many of us in East Cobb have answered, “Capps Orthodontics, of course.” This September, as Dr. W. Jerry Capps, D.D.S., M.S.D., begins his well-deserved retirement, his successor, Dr. John D. Iaculli, D.D.S., M.S., assumes the leadership role at Capps and Iaculli Orthodontics.

When the two doctors were introduced in the spring of 2013, each was considering the next chapter in his life. Dr. Capps was seeking someone he could trust to continue the practice. Dr. Iaculli was searching for a practice to join with a doctor who shared his views on positive patient care. In November, 2013, Dr. Iaculli bought the practice, and they have been working side by side to ensure a smooth transition.

Originally from upstate New York, Dr. Iaculli, once his schooling was complete, set his sights on the Southeast with its young families and better weather. He landed in Atlanta and worked as the orthodontist for a pediatric dental group for several years. According to Dr. Iaculli, his introduction to Dr. Capps was a dream come true.

“The reason that I became an orthodontist was because of the positive experience that I had with my childhood orthodontist,” says Dr. Iaculli. “After meeting Jerry Capps, I knew that I had found the kind of practice I was looking for. My goal is to continue the great work that he has done and carry on the legacy that he has built in East Cobb.”

Dr. Iaculli describes the office staff as a “world-class team” and the patients as “smiling and happy.” He points out that he will keep those personal touches that have made this orthodontics office so special. The same prominent white board that greets new patients by name, announces “braces on” and celebrates “braces off” will remain, as will the personal, written communication to each patient and family dentist. Also, the photographs of past patients revealing their transformed smiles will continue to decorate the walls of Capps and Iaculli Orthodontics.

Although many of the patients are children and adolescents, about one-third of the patients are adults. So, anyone who wants a beautiful smile and the renewed self-confidence that accompanies it is welcome. Located at 2810 Lassiter Road, the office is open on Monday-Wednesday from 8:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. and Thursday from 7:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. For more information or a consultation, visit www.cappsortho.com or call 770-993-7118.
